First 100 Guests Receive Iron Maidens' HOG Wild Tees FREE!

BRISTOL, Conn. The first 100 guests to attend the first Iron Maidens' HOG Wild Pig Roast at City Sports Grille in Bristol Saturday, May 17, receive a free event tee compliments of Rogo Distributors and Miller Lite.

"This pig roast offers something for everyone," says Karen Butler, captain of the Iron Maidens team. "We are even offering guests a chance to win a 2008 limited edition Harley-Davidson Screamin' Eagle motorcycle. If that's not enough we have drawings for terrific prizes to include a yearlong VIP membership to Cardio Express Fitness Centers, gift certificates for New England Cycle Center and Gengras Harley-Davidson/Buell and gift certificates to the area's best eateries."

The HOG Wild event will feature a pig roast with the all the fixins, Miller Lite, courtesy of Rogo Distributors, acoustic performances by Sean Rivers Music, an 1800 Band concert live and a Bike Night contest hosted by Full Throttle Magazine. The roast will also feature a 50/50 drawing, give-a-ways, and drawings for prizes.

The Iron Maidens' HOG Wild Pig Roast will be held at Spare Time/City Sports Grille, located at 177 Farmington Ave., in Bristol, Conn., Saturday, May 17, from 5 to close. The fee is $25. Partners and sponsors include City Sports Grille, Rogo Distributors, Connecticut Cruise News, Full Throttle Magazine, foreverdesign.net, 1800 Band, Sean Rivers Music and Integrity Graphics. Prize contributors include Cardio Express Fitness Centers, New England Cycle Center, Gengras Harley-Davidson Buell, Piccolo Arancio, Five Guys Burgers & Fries, Harbor Park Bar & Grill, Wood-N-Tap Bar & Grill, Hot Leathers in Vernon, Bristol Firestone, Bristol Bagels Plus Deli, CVS Pharmacy, Bristol Starbucks, Ginza Japanese Restaurant, Cugino's, Curves for Women and many more.

For more information on the Iron Maiden's HOG Wild Pig Roast or to join the Iron Maidens & the Band of Brothers team, please contact Karen Butler at kbutler@ctfightsMS.org or call 860-714-2300, ext. 230.