National MS Society of Central Virginia honors "Women on the Move"

Nomination Form 2013

The Central Virginia Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society's WOMEN ON THE MOVE awards committee is seeking nominations of women who have made important, perhaps unique, economic, social, cultural or humanitarian contributions to their community.

Eligibility: Nominees must live or work in Central Virginia and must have demonstrated excellence and leadership in the workplace and/or the community.

How to Nominate: To nominate a woman for this honor please complete this nomination form. It is strongly recommended that nominators consult with the nominee, their co-workers, friends and family members for the purpose of securing information that would be helpful in responding to the questions on the form. The selection committee depends on the quality of the information you provide to make its decision.

Awards: Finalists will be invited to attend the awards luncheon within the corresponding market listed below. The 2013 Woman on the Move will be announced at this event and presented with the award. The nomination form is also available online at www.moveVA.org for your convenience.
