

Current Topics in Multiple Sclerosis: Implications for Practice

CME/CE Webinar Series

The constant flow of new information regarding MS management including disease modification, symptomatic therapies, rehabilitation, and treatment of mood and cognitive disorders is challenging for clinicians to assimilate and apply to their practices. This CME/CE webinar series provides a free, accessible educational opportunity for health care clinicians involved in the care of patients with MS with the aim of improving MS knowledge and patient outcomes.

- Wednesday, September 19, 2018; 7-8pm ET
