

PRIMAL WEAR FOR NATIONAL TEAMS

Raise money for your Bike MS® teams with team jerseys! Order your team jerseys through Primal and receive 15% of your order total BACK as a donation to your team's fundraising account.

As a National Team Captain, gathering your teams' orders can be a struggle. There are sizes and quantities to collect and processing of all the payments. Let Primal Custom set you up with your own team store and make things easy for you! The Primal Team Store allows team members across the country to individually order and pay for their own jersey online safely and securely. As the team manager, you can track orders and quantities online, as well as manage shipping options.

Primal can assist you in the design process, complete order fulfillment, and ship your products with no additional cost. Primal Custom has a product range that fits any cycling style or discipline. Whether you are looking for elite race apparel or comfortable sport cut apparel, Primal has you covered.

Ordering custom cycling apparel for your National Team is easy. Primal will guide you through the process with a personal Custom Account Specialist and online tools designed to make the process as streamlined as possible.
