The National Multiple Sclerosis Society, Michigan Chapter Congratulates the MS Leadership Class of 2014

The MS Leadership Class honors local business men and women for their outstanding contributions and leadership in the movement to create a world free of multiple sclerosis. Nominated by their peers, members of the Class of 2014 successfully completed a special gifts campaign that helped raise awareness and over $30,000 for the National MS Society, Michigan Chapter.

We salute the MS Leadership Class of 2014 for their leadership and service to the community.

THE MS LEADERSHIP CLASS OF 2014:

Front Row (L to R): Elana Sullivan, President, National MS Society, Michigan Chapter; Kim Hinton, St. John Providence; Janelle Summers, Tim Hortons; Rachel St. James Thompson, Bank of Birmingham; Lauren Michalsky, Brose North America, Inc.; Emily Todebush, The Taubman Company; Jennifer Silerio, St. John Providence; Laura Humphries, DENSO International America, Inc.

Back Row (L to R): Dr. Michael Wiemann, President, Providence Hospital & Senior Vice President, West Region, Honorary Chair – Class of 2014; John Pitoors, St. John Providence; Holly Woodruff, Teva Neuroscience; Jeff Hupp, The Powers That Be Social Media; Brandon Parker, Wayne State University Neurosurgery; Stephen Weberman, Open Dealer Exchange; Larry Emerling, General Motors; Rick Dye, Albert Kahn Associates; John Erb, DTE Energy; Steve Jones, General Motors; David Brooks, President, St. John Hospital and Medical Center & Senior Vice President, East Region, Honorary Chair – Class of 2014.

Not Pictured: Renee Amodeo, Industrial Automotive Components; Judith Ewald, H. T. Ewald Foundation; Melissa Johnson, The Meridian Company; Sarah Kochis, Big Brothers Big Sisters of Metro Detroit.

For additional information about the MS Leadership Class, please e-mail leadershipmi@nmss.org. For information about multiple sclerosis and the programs & services available through the Society, contact:

The National MS Society, Michigan Chapter
21311 Civic Center Drive • Southfield, MI 48076
1-800-FIGHT-MS • nationalMSsociety.org/mig